Singapore Strategic Goods (Control) Update in September 2015, takes effect from 2 November 2015

15 September 2015

The Strategic Goods (Control) Order 2015, Strategic Goods (Control) (Brokering) (Amendment) Order 2015 and Strategic Goods (Control) (Amendment) Regulations 2015 have been gazetted on 4 September 2015, and will come into effect from 2 November 2015. (refer to Circular No.12/2015)

On 25 August, Singapore Customs released Notice No.12/2015 on upcoming changes to the strategic goods control list. Singapore Customs will be conducting a series of awareness briefing to various industries in September starting from 14th to 21st September to the following industries:-

Group 1: Aerospace & Defense, Marine Oil & Gas, Material & Equipment

Group 2: Semiconductor, Electronics, Telecommunication and Information Security

Group 3: Freight Forwarders and Declaring Agents

Group 4: General Audience

The new SGCO 2015 (the Control List) is following the 2014 Wassenaar Arrangement Munition List, and 2014 European Union's Dual use List.

With the new introduction of SGCO 2015, the controlled items under brokering, transshipment and transit will be amended accordingly.
